

Weather and Politics

Society last week was so dead that it is hardly proper to speak of it. Whether it was the weather or politics that caused this complete state of ossification I will not undertake to say. Both were on hand in large quantities, and both are equally sinister and pestiferous when it comes to forming a distraction from the ordinary current of social events, so you may take your choice.

Far be it from me to make any comment on the weather that has prevailed for more than a week past. This is a perfectly ladylike page of a paper that tries to be as nice as it can, and to tell the truth about the weather would not be in line with the policy of the management, which caters to a refined, not to a high-brow clientele. The only good thing can be said in favor of it—the weather, I mean—is that it didn't come during the fair. The thought of such a possibility is nothing less than appalling.

As to politics—well, of course you have noticed that the girls are in it up to their hairpins, and if we get through the next three weeks without having our faces scratched and our clothes torn we'll have something to be thankful for. We are forming clubs and talking about the Susan amendment and generally making our influence felt. At least I suppose somebody is feeling it, for every politician that makes a speech tells us what an almighty shame it is we can't vote a few times for his candidate at the coming election. He takes it for granted that we all of us want to vote and he is prepared to see that the tickets are printed in advance to match our gloves and that tea and bonbons are served at the polling places.

I have always held to the view that the girls will vote so soon as a majority, or even a considerable minority, of us get it into our heads that we want to vote. I have serious doubts whether there are as many of us who are consumed with that desire as would appear on the surface of things, and I have an idea that we are making a noise out of all proportion to our numbers—but never mind; if we can get by with it what difference does it make? Personally, I would like to see the thing settled and out of the way, one way or the other, for this eternal agitation of the matter is getting on my nerves and I'd like to see everybody get back to their knitting again. I never have been able to see that the girls were missing very much by not voting, but on the other hand I can't see that the root of creation will fall in if we do vote. There's a lot of hysteria about the thing on the part of the women and a lot of hypocrisy on the part of the men. Hysteria and hypocrisy are about equally objectionable. Why can't we take one great big vote on the matter all over the United States and then agree to shut up on the subject for the next hundred and eighty years?

THE STATE FEDERATION.

To Mrs. Helen Roddy Bremm I am indebted for a delightfully breezy account of the meeting of the State Federation of Women's clubs held at Las Vegas early this month, which is published elsewhere on this page.

Me delivral to the sex? Perish the thought! Also, the very idea! How could I know all those things without being told? Why didn't some of the bunch that went up there take the trouble to let me in on what was going on and give me something of the atmosphere of the thing? I submit that it wasn't my fault at all, and that the blame rests entirely on those who tried to keep matters a secret from me.

Well, anyhow, there's no excuse now for Mrs. Stamba, hasn't it and told it well. Las Vegas turned herself loose with her usual display of hospitality, and everybody had a perfectly lovely time, and we hope it will not be long until they all come here to Albuquerque and we get a chance to show them what we think of them.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

And speaking of the state federation, its proceedings—or rather the narration of them—occupied the attention of the local club last Friday afternoon to the exclusion of everything else. Mrs. John W. Wilson gave a report on the work of the federation generally. Alhright and Mrs. La Belle reported on different features of the federation meeting. Mrs. Bullock also read a report on the biennial convention of the national federation at New York which had been delayed on account of Mrs. Bullock's bad health.

After the regular meeting there was a reception to the new members of the club, during which Mrs. George Wheeler and Mrs. F. W. Nickler rendered musical selections which were appreciatively received.

THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

"President's evening" of the Fortnightly Music club, held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. R. R. Pollock, featured in the musical season of Albuquerque, a season that promises to be the most pretentious and interesting in the history of the club.

The program for the evening included selections by Miss Nichols and Mrs. D. J. Nichols, who sang in always artistic and satisfactory manner. Miss Lorna Lester and Mrs. John Clark, violinists—the former a young student possessed of much talent and musical understanding, the latter a finished artist who is too seldom heard in Albuquerque musical circles. Mrs. Henning and Mr. Falkenburg sang the ever-lovely "Calm as the Night," their voices blending admirably, and Mrs. N. W. Henning, who was in excellent voice, gave two Cadman numbers. Much interest was manifested in the appearance of Mr. Meehan, the young tenor who left this week to continue his vocal studies in Chicago. Following the program a social hour was enjoyed, and refreshments served by a committee of the younger members of the club.

Mrs. Henning, president of the club, has undertaken an ambitious program for this season, and through Mrs. Pollock of the promotion committee, announced at this meeting the engagement of a galaxy of artists to appear in Albuquerque this winter which surpasses, if possible, those of last season. It is expected that the public will lend enthusiastic support.

The next meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Winfrey.

HENDRICKS-HIMES.

The marriage of Miss Maurine Hendricks and Capt. W. P. Himes, which was solemnized on October 4, at the home of Rev. C. O. Beckman, did not become generally known until last week, as it was originally planned by the couple to keep the event a secret until next December. Surprises and congratulations followed the announcement several days ago that the wedding had taken place.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. N. A. Modes of 601 South Walter street, and has lived in Albuquerque about two years, during which time she has won a large circle of friends. Captain Himes is one of the most popular employees of the Santa Fe railroad in this city and is well known for his activities in military circles.

A little later Captain and Mrs. Himes will take an extended honeymoon trip through the south, visiting relatives of the bride in Arkansas and afterwards traveling through Florida and other southern states upon their return to Albuquerque they will be at home at 1308 South Edith street.

GARRETT-CLEVENGER.

Miss Marguerite L. Garrett, of Colmar, N. M., and Mr. Joseph Cleveneger, of Las Vegas, were united in marriage last Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Baptist church, Rev. C. T. Taylor, pastor of the church, officiating. Miss Ethel Garrett, a sister of the bride, played the wedding march. In spite of the bad weather there was a large attendance of the friends of the couple to witness the ceremony. The church was artistically decorated with palms and flowers.

The bride is a native of Virginia, but has lived in New Mexico several years. The groom is a native of Tennessee. He has been an engineer on the Santa Fe between Las Vegas and Albuquerque for a number of years, with his home at Las Vegas. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveneger will reside in Las Vegas.

MILITARY DANCE.

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 14.—To call it a huge success would not do justice to the first social event of the season at New Mexico Military Institute, given by the Cadet club, in the big gymnasium, Saturday night. It was full of pep and life from the very beginning and was of that high refined type which is only characteristic of the school.

Mrs. Sidney Prager was the official chaperon. The faculty officers and their wives were in attendance, and many visitors were present, some coming from as far as Carlsbad. The dance started at 8 o'clock and closed at 11:45.

everything ideal for the occasion. Each dance was lustily applauded and several times encores.

This being the first dance of the season the cadets were permitted to attend in their service uniforms, as many of the new cadets have not yet received the full dress. The new cadets, of course, took great interest in meeting the young ladies of Roswell and the older cadets did their best to show the new men what splendid dances can be held at the institute. These dances are held at intervals throughout the season and are always looked upon with great interest by the people of Roswell.

Mr. George Cleveland, a member of the senior class, is president of the Cadet Corporation club.

Prof. J. R. Buckler is opening a dancing class at the institute this week, owing to the large number of students he is expecting to have a large class for the first month. All cadets are expected to dance and to be a good dancer is a part of a cadet's training.

HANSBROUGH-PEARLING.

Mr. Jerry M. Pearling, of Santa Fe, and Mrs. Nellie Hansbrough, of El Paso, called at the home of Rev. C. T. Taylor at 10 o'clock Monday morning, and were united in marriage. They were attended by Ralph Pearling and Alfred Cleveland.

Mr. Pearling was formerly connected with the Service garage in this city. He is now a member of the first of Pearling's Web in Santa Fe.

CHARITY CARD PARTY.

A card party for the benefit of the Cystic Fibrosis league is to be given next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Country club. The new infirmary constructed by the league is now nearing completion, and the proceeds of the benefit are to be devoted to furnishing beds for that institution.

Tea will be served at 4:30 and an Albuquerque women are invited to participate. Tickets may be secured by phoning any member of the committee named below. The donation will be fifty cents for each person and those not desiring to play cards may come for tea. The large number of tables already reserved assured the affair a splendid success. G. Cornish, Mrs. Edward D. Horan, Miss Lee.

FAREWELL DANCE.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Wagner were guests at a farewell dance given by a number of their friends at the Woman's club Monday evening, the affair being in the nature of an expression of the esteem in which the guests are held and of regret at their early departure for Tucson, Ariz. The chaplains were Mrs. C. A. Watson and Mrs. Wagner, and those participating in the affair were Miss Camille Pineda, Miss Marian Sinnott, Miss Sadie Olson, Miss Mary Pratt, Miss Edith Olson, Miss Clark, Watson, Miss Maude Watson, Miss Louise Watson, Miss Geraldine Feeley, Miss Marian Trasher, Miss Doris Pineda, Mrs. Fred Torrell, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Taylor, Messrs.
